

The Duke and Duchess of Marlborough with their prize winning ram at the Oxford fair. The ram was sold for $300. Underwood & Underwood.

Mirza Hussein Khan, new Persian Minister to the United States, who arrived on the Adriatic to take up his post in Washington. He is a bachelor.

The Duke of Beaufort, who is unable to walk without crutches, maintains his keen interest in sport. The photograph shows him watching the judging of a puppy contest at Badminton. Central News.

Champion Jack Dempsey and Samuel M. Vaulain, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, sparred an exhibition bout at a picnic for poor children at Chester, Pa. Mr. Vaulain got the decision. Underwood & Underwood.

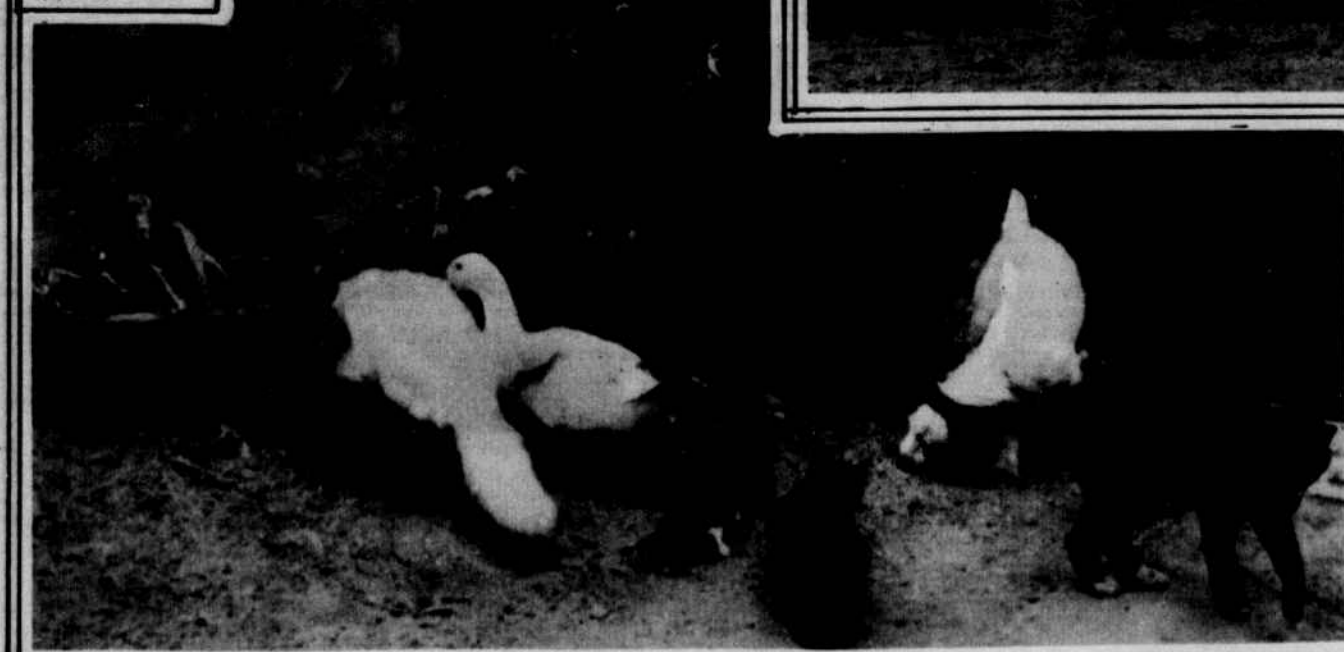

A propeller drawn motor car was successfully driven through London traffic recently. The blades were enclosed in a wire screen for protection of the public. (c) Photo Press.

A giant cactus, photographed in the Four Peaks region of Arizona. A comparison with the figure of the man on horseback gives an idea of its great size. Keystone View Co.

Miss Catherine Burdett at the tiller of the Southern Cross in a recent regatta on Long Island Sound. Edwin Levick.

Boarders at the home for animals at Richmond, England, get along harmoniously, although they are of many different species. The photograph was taken at feeding time, when the strain on good manners becomes terrific. International.

This little girl is standing on a leaf of a gigantic water lily in the botanical gardens at Hamburg, Germany. Its scientific name is Victoria Regia. Underwood & Underwood.